ABOUT THE EVENT:

The annual event begins at 11:00 am, Saturday, March 6 with a series of Salsa dance lessons taught by Master instructor, Enio Cordoba from Los Angeles. Enio is among the most in demand Salsa teachers in the world. In addition to owning the most popular Salsa club in Los Angeles- The Granada, Enio is a judge at the World Salsa Championships in Orlando, and has choreographed for many of the top West Coast Salsa World Champions.

Enio has received three coveted Feather Awards (like the Academy Awards for dancers) - twice as the Hottest Mambo Dancer and once as the Top Teacher. In 1998 Enio taught at the prestigious World Dance Congress in Blackpool, the European Salsa Congress, the Dutch Professional Congress, the Belgian Dance Congress, and has taught in Spain, Austria, Italy, Germany, Latvia, Slovakia, Canada plus many times in London. In 1999 he taught at the German Congress in Frankfurt and returned to Blackpool for the World Social Dance Congress.

His specialty is combining the street feel of Salsa with the speed and control of trained competitive dancers. His massive classes are the largest in Los Angeles.

Advance registration is not required but is appreciated. To register call John or Sandra at 603-643-5341 or visit <http://www.uvdance.net>.

ABOUT THE UPPER VALLEY DANCE NETWORK:

The Upper Valley Dance Network was founded in 1998 by dance enthusiast, DJ and dance instructor, John Tomeny. Now co-directed by the popular dance instructor team, John & Sandra Tomeny, the UVDN hosts monthly swing, Salsa and ballroom dances at Tracy Hall in Norwich, Vermont, and Second Saturday Salsa dances at Gusanoz Mexican Restaurant in Lebanon, New Hampshire. The Network also sponsors regular weekly lessons and special monthly dance workshops with world and national champion instructors.

Once each year the Upper Valley Dance Network hosts an opportunity for local residents to learn from, and dance with, some of the most in-demand instructors in the world. Previous year's instructors have included the world famous Frankie Manning, one of the inventors of swing dance from the 1930's, six-year reigning World Champions, Nathalie Gomes and Yuval Hod, and California Swing Dance Champion, Sylvia Sykes.
